Borders

Cutting

Yellow fabric:

Cut 1 ½" wide strips to get approximately 230" in length.

Sew strips together to get two borders measuring 1 ½" x 60 ½"

Sew strips together to get two borders measuring 1 ½" x 50 ½".

TIP: when joining border strips do a mitered seam.

Put two strips right sides together on 90 degree angle and stitch on diagonal. Cut away excess. Press

Find the middle or centre along one of the sides. Find the centre of your one strip 1 ½" x 60 ½" (30 ¼")

Pin the border matching centre of quilt side and centre of border. Pin. Then match each end of quilt with the border and pin in between. Repeat for other side.

Do similar for the top and bottom borders.
